❖ COMING UP IN ADULT EDUCATION

Today: The Words We Sing / Songs That Shape Us

Bill Ford will lead us in a study of the texts that we sing and why they are so important. As theologian Marva Dawn states, a hymn text "is great in proportion to what we can learn from it." This will also be an opportunity for people to share their own treasured hymns, telling stories of how certain hymns and songs have shaped their lives.

April 17: Hymns Ancient and Modern II

We will continue our journey through the centuries of congregational song by focusing on the 19th through 21st centuries. Examples will include the effects of Vatican II, World Music, and the Contemporary Christian Music industry.

❖ LENTEN PRAYER PROJECT

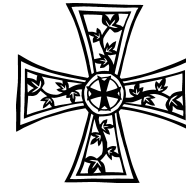

During Lent again this year, a group of our church members will be praying for each person in the congregation during the six weeks of Lent. You may leave any special requests in the Prayer Box beside the office workroom door. These will be confidential, unless you mark a Prayer Card "Share with Congregation."

This week: April 10: last names beginning with Pe through Swaf.

The eternal God is your refuge and underneath are his everlasting arms. -Deuteronomy 33:27

My mouth is filled with your praise, declaring your splendor all day long.

❖ WE ARE RENEWED IN GRACE

*CALL TO CONFESSION

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Most holy and merciful Father,

We confess to you and to one another, that we have sinned against you in thought, word and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart and mind and strength. We have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. In your mercy forgive what we have been, help us amend what we are, and direct what we shall be, so that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your holy name. For the sake of Jesus Christ, Amen.

*THE PEACE/TIME OF GREETING

The peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

And also with you.

*OUR COMMITMENT TO HOLY LIVING

Since we have been saved by grace, how shall we live in relationship to him who saved us?

We will have no other gods before him; we will not make for ourselves any substitute gods;

we will not abuse the name of the Lord, but speak it only in reverence and love;

we will honor the Lord's day through worship, witness and fellowship with his people.

How shall we live in relationship with others?

We will honor our parents and hold the family in high esteem;

we will not abuse or injure our friends or neighbors by words, gestures or deeds;

we will not commit adultery, but live holy disciplined lives; we will not steal; we will not lie;

we will not grasp for what we do not have, nor reject others for having it.

How does Jesus summarize these commandments?

He says that we should love the Lord our God with all our heart, mind and strength, and our neighbors as ourselves, and by God's grace, we will do it!
