About the cover image: Thrones are befitting the honor due an exalted King, majestic and glorious (see Rev. 4).

This image is a close-up view, only a hint of the decoration and adornment appropriate for the throne of Christ, sovereign Lord of all creation. Quatrefoils, as seen in the middle of the print, have been used in architectural tracery features since medieval times. They depict the four gospels which tell the story of Jesus' life and ministry.

In all times and in all places may honor and glory be given to him!

Welcome + Announcements

Prelude Let the first note of the prelude be to you a call to silent prayer and preparation for worship.

Crown Him with Many Crowns setting by James Swearingen Wind Ensemble

*Call to Worship

The grace of our only Ruler, the Lord Jesus Christ, be with you all.

And also with you.

Today is a day when we are asked to turn an idea upside down - to firmly take the word "king" and understand it anew.

Christ is our humble King, the monarch of all things. His only crown was a wreath of thorns.

His only throne was two crossed planks of wood.

His only companions were two thieves, one at his right, one at his left.

Come, let us celebrate our remarkable Savior.

Jesus of Nazareth is our incomparable King.

*Opening Hymn

Crown Him with Many Crowns blue, #151

*Prayer of Confession

We come before God in confession, laying our faults at the feet of Christ.

To you, Christ our King, we bring our lust for power and set it down before your rejection of power.

We bring our love of money and place it before your willing poverty.

We bring our strong pride and set it before your utter humility.

We bring our revenge mentality and lay it before your mercifulness.

We bring our self interest and rest it before your self giving.

We bring all our ideas of so-called wisdom and lay it before the love of your cross.

Most merciful God, forgive us once again. Enable us to let go of guilt, and realign and re-shape our hopes and ambitions to your sacred purposes.

time for silent prayers of personal confession

Bold print - speak together in unison

* please stand as you are able

*Assurance of Pardon

The criminal said, "Jesus, remember me when you enter your kingdom."

Jesus said, "Do not worry. I will. Today you will join me in paradise."

When Jesus died, the captain of the army said, "This man was a good man.

This man was innocent." Friends, believe the Good News.

In Jesus Christ the Innocent, we, too, have been made innocent. We, too, need not worry.

We, too, have received the boundless mercy of God.

*The Peace/Time of Greeting

The grace, love and peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

And also with you.

Please greet your neighbors with, "The peace of Christ be with you." Responding with, "And also with you."
