GATHERING

MEDITATION

Lord God of love and peace, release me from my small-mindedness and from the prison I have placed upon my heart. And open me to love that welcomes, purpose that serves, and new relationships that offer joy. I ask these things in Jesus' name. Amen.

WELCOME + ANNOUNCEMENTS

PRELUDE

Amazing Grace, How Sweet the Sound setting by James Curnow Justin Moser, saxophone

Our music is offered to the glory of God; if you wish to express a response, a spoken "Amen" or "Praise God" is welcomed.

*CALL TO WORSHIP

We call out to God for the help we need.

God stands with us through our struggles, through our temptations.

Surely God is in this place. Surely God welcomes us with joy.

Let us hear God calling us to the path that is true and good.

Let us hear of the Gospel-hope, that Christ came into the world to bring mercy and to save the world.

Let us worship our great God with praise!

*OPENING HYMN

A Mighty Fortress Is Our God blue, #260

*CALL TO CONFESSION

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION

We are surrounded by so many seductions, forgiving God, we find it difficult to see you in our lives.

Hope has a hard time surviving when there is so much anger between peoples, so much apathy about those who suffer.

Our neighborhoods, our families, even our churches, can be locations for contention and discord.

We cry for help, God of mercy. Forgive us. Restore us.

And teach us to be vessels of the grace, forgiveness, and joy we see in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Silence is kept for personal confession

Broken, we are mended. Separated from others, we are made one.

Longing to serve, we are sent forth. Thanks be to God in Christ Jesus, we are forgiven.

TODAY AT ST. ANDREW

Singing the Reformed Faith at 9:45 am in the Sanctuary

Today is noted as Reformation Sunday, a day to recognize and celebrate God's redeeming and reforming work within the church. On this day we will gather during the Christian Education hour to sing and tell stories that reflect our Reformed heritage. This is also a special day in that we will be kicking off a new project at St. Andrew - a project, led by the Worship Team, to create our own hymnal supplement - I Will Sing of My Redeemer.
